

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

May 10, 2004

Ms. Patricia J. Acosta
Assistant District Attorney
Thirty-Fourth Judicial District
500 East San Antonio Street, 2nd Floor
El Paso, Texas 79901-2420

OR2004-3780

Dear Ms. Acosta:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 201298.

The District Attorney's Office for the Thirty-Fourth Judicial District (the "district attorney") received a request for information pertaining to a particular cause number. You inform us that some information has been released but claim that other requested information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101, 552.108, and 552.130 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Initially, we note that the requestor asserts that he and the former attorney for the criminal defendant in this case have been allowed to inspect many of the requested documents and papers. Whether information has previously been voluntarily released is a fact question that cannot be addressed in the ruling process. See Attorney General Opinion JC-0534 at 1 (2002) (this office does not make factual determinations in opinion process). We therefore must rely on a governmental body's representations with regard to such issues. The district attorney informs us that the defendant's attorney was only allowed to review the state's case file in compliance with constitutional requirements. See Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963) (prosecution is required to provide defense with all potentially exculpatory evidence). Based on the district attorney's representation, we conclude that the district attorney has not previously released any of the requested information that it now seeks to withhold to a member of the public and will therefore address the district attorney's claim that a portion of the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code. See generally Gov't Code § 552.007 (if governmental body voluntarily releases information to member of public, such information may not later be withheld unless confidential under law); Open Records Decision Nos. 579 (1990) (exchange of information among litigants in “informal” discovery is not “voluntary” release of information for purposes of statutory predecessor of section 552.007); 454 at 2 (1986) (where governmental body disclosed information because it reasonably concluded it had constitutional obligation to do so, it could still invoke law enforcement exception).

We turn next to your arguments regarding section 552.101 of the Government Code. This section excepts from disclosure “information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision” and encompasses laws that make criminal history record information (“CHRI”) confidential. CHRI “means information collected about a person by a criminal justice agency that consists of identifiable descriptions and notations of arrests, detentions, indictments, informations, and other formal criminal charges and their dispositions” but does not include “driving record information maintained by [the Department of Public Safety (“DPS”)] under Subchapter C, Chapter 521, Transportation Code.” Gov’t Code § 411.082(2).

Federal regulations prohibit the release of CHRI maintained in state and local CHRI systems to the general public. See 28 C.F.R. § 20.21(c)(1) (“Use of criminal history record information disseminated to noncriminal justice agencies shall be limited to the purpose for which it was given.”), (2) (“No agency or individual shall confirm the existence or nonexistence of criminal history record information to any person or agency that would not be eligible to receive the information itself.”). Under chapter 411 of the Government Code, a criminal justice agency may obtain CHRI from DPS or from another criminal justice agency. Gov’t Code §§ 411.083(b)(1), .087(a)(2), .089(a). However, CHRI so obtained is confidential and may only be disclosed in very limited instances. Gov’t Code § 411.084; see also Gov’t Code § 411.087 (restrictions on disclosure of CHRI obtained from DPS also apply to CHRI obtained from other criminal justice agencies). Therefore, to the extent that the submitted documents contain CHRI that was obtained pursuant to these state and federal regulations, such information must be withheld under section 552.101 as information made confidential by law.

In addition, we note that the submitted information includes social security numbers that may be confidential under federal law. Section 552.101 also encompasses amendments to the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. § 405(c)(2)(C)(viii)(I), that make confidential social security numbers and related records that are obtained or maintained by a state agency or political subdivision of the state pursuant to any provision of law enacted on or after October 1, 1990. See Open Records Decision No. 622 (1994). We have no basis for concluding that the social security numbers at issue are confidential under section 405(c)(2)(C)(viii)(I) and therefore excepted from public disclosure under section 552.101 on the basis of that federal provision. We caution, however, that section 552.352 of the Government Code imposes criminal penalties for the release of confidential information. Prior to releasing any social security number information, you should ensure that such information is not obtained or maintained by the district attorney pursuant to any provision of law enacted on or after October 1, 1990.

You contend that the information submitted as Enclosure 5 may be withheld pursuant to section 552.108 of the Government Code. This section provides in part:

(a) Information held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime is excepted from [required public disclosure] if:

(4) it is information that:

(A) is prepared by an attorney representing the state in anticipation of or in the course of preparing for criminal litigation; or

(B) reflects the mental impressions or legal reasoning of an attorney representing the state.

Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(4). You state that the records at issue "were prepared by an attorney representing the State in anticipation of or in the course of preparing for criminal litigation, and reflect the mental impressions or legal reasoning for the attorney representing the state." Based on your representations and arguments and our review of the information submitted as Enclosure 5, we conclude that you have established the applicability of section 552.108(a)(4) to this information, and it may be withheld on this basis.

Finally, you note that the submitted information includes Texas-issued motor vehicle record information. Section 552.130 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure information that "relates to . . . a motor vehicle operator's or driver's license or permit issued by an agency of this state [or] a motor vehicle title or registration issued by an agency of this state." Gov't Code § 552.130. Therefore, pursuant to section 552.130, the district attorney must withhold the information we have marked.

In summary, to the extent that the submitted documents contain CHRI that was obtained pursuant to state and federal regulations, it must be withheld under section 552.101 as information made confidential by law. Social security numbers may be confidential under federal law. Enclosure 5 may be withheld under section 552.108. Pursuant to section 552.130, the district attorney must withhold the marked Texas-issued motor vehicle information. The remaining submitted information must be released.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular records at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For example, governmental bodies are prohibited from asking the attorney general to reconsider this ruling. Gov't Code § 552.301(f). If the governmental body wants to challenge this ruling, the governmental body must appeal by filing suit in Travis County within 30 calendar days. Id. § 552.324(b). In order to get the full benefit of such an appeal, the governmental body must file suit within 10 calendar days. Id. § 552.353(b)(3), (c). If the governmental body does not appeal this ruling and the governmental body does not comply with it, then both the requestor and the attorney general have the right to file suit against the governmental body to enforce this ruling. Id. § 552.321(a).

If this ruling requires the governmental body to release all or part of the requested information, the governmental body is responsible for taking the next step. Based on the statute, the attorney general expects that, within 10 calendar days of this ruling, the governmental body will do one of the following three things: 1) release the public records; 2) notify the requestor of the exact day, time, and place that copies of the records will be provided or that the records can be inspected; or 3) notify the requestor of the governmental body's intent to challenge this letter ruling in court. If the governmental body fails to do one of these three things within 10 calendar days of this ruling, then the requestor should report that failure to the attorney general's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. The requestor may also file a complaint with the district or county attorney. Id. § 552.3215(e).

If this ruling requires or permits the governmental body to withhold all or some of the requested information, the requestor can appeal that decision by suing the governmental body. Id. § 552.321(a); Texas Dep't of Pub. Safety v. Gilbreath, 842 S.W.2d 408, 411 (Tex. App.—Austin 1992, no writ).

Please remember that under the Act the release of information triggers certain procedures for costs and charges to the requestor. If records are released in compliance with this ruling, be sure that all charges for the information are at or below the legal amounts. Questions or complaints about over-charging must be directed to Hadassah Schloss at the Texas Building and Procurement Commission at (512) 475-2497.

If the governmental body, the requestor, or any other person has questions or comments about this ruling, they may contact our office. We note that a third party may challenge this ruling by filing suit seeking to withhold information from a requestor. Gov't Code § 552.325. Although there is no statutory deadline for contacting us, the attorney general prefers to receive any comments within 10 calendar days of the date of this ruling.

Sincerely,

Denis C. McElroy
Assistant Attorney General
